

Biotonic™

DAILY ADAPTOGENIC ELIXIR

DIGESTION & VITALITY*

AVAILABLE IN 2 OZ (59 mL) LIQUID

We are all about botanicals – and we usually talk about them from a Western perspective. But sometimes changing your lens brings additional benefits. That's why Founder and Formulator Rachel Fresco, L. Ac., used inspiration from two Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) formulas to create our adaptogenic elixir, Biotonic™.

Biotonic™ is based on two of the most commonly used TCM herbal formulas, "Tonify the Middle and Lift the Qi" (Bu-Zhong-Yi-Qi-Tang) and "Decoction of the Six Gentlemen" (Liu-Jin-Zi-Tang). They have been used by healers for centuries to address common complaints including digestive issues (like bloating and nausea), fatigue, poor assimilation, and weak immune response.

Sound familiar? These complaints continue to be a daily stressor for many – almost every person who walks through the clinic door.

The addition of Artemisia strengthens the formula's microbial balancing activity and promotes a healthy inflammatory response*¹ Biotonic™ also contains Fo Ti root. According to the Chinese Herbal Medicine: Materia Medica, Fo Ti boosts kidney Qi, and supports liver function – making it useful for restoration after illness.*

By relying on ancient wisdom for modern challenges, Rachel Fresco created a synergy that provides a gentle yet powerful addition to our line. An adaptogenic companion product designed specifically to augment the activity of Biocidin®. Biotonic™ tonifies digestion, immune activity, and vitality – and it's available to us every day.

Ingredient Mechanisms of Action

Scientific literature shows that the individual botanicals in Biotonic™ have multiple activities. Below are highlights that may account for the outcomes seen in a clinical setting.

Enhancing Digestive Activity – Atractylodes, Codonopsis, and Ginger support digestion and eliminate bloating.

Tonifies Qi – Herbs such as Astragalus, Atractylodes, Chinese Peony, Codonopsis, Eleuthero, Fo Ti, Licorice, and Poria restore weakened kidney and liver Qi, supporting increased vital force and energy levels.

Adaptogenic – Herbs like Astragalus, Licorice, and Eleuthero help balance the HPA Axis and assist the body in moderating the effects of stress.

Supports Elimination of Unwanted Passengers – Sweet Wormwood is well documented for its ability to assist in addressing “bad players” that otherwise cause harm.

Hepatoprotective – Licorice, Eleuthero, Chinese Peony, and Turmeric support healthy liver function.

Immunomodulatory – Astragalus is one of the best-known and researched herbs for immune system regulation. Atractylodes, Codonopsis, Eleuthero, and Fo Ti also help restore immune balance.

Supports Microbial Balance – Several of the botanicals in Biotonic™ are known for their ability to modify the microbiome. These include Atractylodes, Licorice, Codonopsis, Eleuthero, Fo Ti, Tangerine, and Turmeric.
